

I want to write a play!!!

Your time has come to write your own play now, are you up for the challenge?

Imagine the scene.....(close your eyes and do it then!)

The child has had his homework stolen by another person in the class but doesn't want to tell on him

The teacher is cross and is demanding the homework.

Can you finish off this play script? I have written the first and the last parts of the play for you.

Try to make it last about a page long and remember to miss out lines between the people talking.

Also remember to add speech descriptors and stage/action directions.

Teacher: (standing very tall and straight with a frown on his face) (Crossly) Where is the homework you should have handed in today!

Teacher: (smiling faintly) Okay I will let you off this time, but please don't let it happen again.
(leaves the room smiling to himself)
