

The Excellence Hub for Yorkshire and Humber presents:

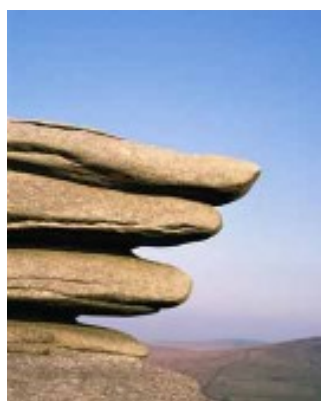

Ethics and Philosophy: What is Right, What is Wrong and What is Religion?

Students in Y11 –12 taking religious studies or philosophy
(GCSE or A Level)

Thursday 24 June 2010

9:45am - 2:45pm

The University of Leeds

Is religion a source of peace, or a root of conflict?

Challenge your assumptions and explore warfare and pacifism

How do we choose from right or wrong; is happiness all that matters?

Explore famous moral theories and carry out thought experiments to test ideas and actions

- Work alongside leading academics and current undergraduates to explore a wide range of the most exciting areas of philosophy that affect how our world functions every day!
- Discover what it's like to study at a top university by experiencing teaching and learning first hand on campus. The day includes lunch at the student refectory.
- Use this opportunity to ask current students questions about student life, making applications to study and about university in general!

School staff can get students involved by using the contact details below.
Email or call and we will reserve you spaces.
