

The Excellence Hub for Yorkshire and Humber Presents:

Exploring History

Lessons learnt from the past

Students in Y12 are invited to attend

Thursday 1 July 2010

10am – 3.30pm

The Department of History

Discover the exciting world of history by exploring fascinating areas of study from the English Revolution to Communism, to Appeasement

Teacher CPD sessions will also run alongside student seminars

- Engage in lectures and interactive seminars hosted by leading academics and current students to discover important areas of history that continue to influence the way we live.
- Exploring up to date research and modern perspectives of some of the world's most significant periods of history, students will engage in seminar discussions and debates.
- Attending school staff are invited to attend an afternoon of CPD, with access to innovative resources up to date guidance on university admissions
- Find out about exciting and unusual careers and courses, and get a feel for the university and what it's like to study on campus by meeting students.
